

DR. VISHAL MANGALWADI
INDIAN PHILOSOPHER AND SOCIAL REFORMER

CAN THE WEST RECOVER ITS SOUL?

A PROVOCATIVE VIEW FROM THE EAST

Thursday, September 25

11.50 – 12.30

ETH Zürich Hönggerberg
HCI G3

18.15 – 19.30

Universität Zürich-Zentrum
Aula (KOL-G-201), Rämistr. 71

CAN THE WEST RECOVER ITS SOUL?

A PROVOCATIVE VIEW FROM THE EAST

Secular Europe has amputated its soul – the spiritual source of its liberty, prosperity and strength; the dynamic worldview that fueled its development beyond other civilizations. However, despair is not the only option. A resurrection that reunites the soul with its decomposing body is still possible. A renewal of Europe will bless the whole world.

ABOUT DR. VISHAL MANGALWADI

Dr. Vishal Mangalwadi, an Indian philosopher and author of 13 books, is an international lecturer and social reformer. His grassroots level service to the poor and the oppressed in India started him on a quest to discover the secret of the West's success. His research culminated in a manuscript «Must the Sun Set on the West?: An Indian Explores the Soul of Western Civilization». Currently he lives in California to make a series of documentaries on the theme of his forthcoming book.

Under the name «Dozentenforum» (Academic Forum for University Lecturers) lecturers from the University (Uni) and the Federal Institute of Technology (ETH) in Zürich, Switzerland, have formed a platform to discuss different subjects from a Christian viewpoint.

The Dozentenforum consists of:

Werner Balderer (Hydrogeologie, ETH)

Thomas Bearth (Afrikanistik, Uni)

Barbara Becker (Nord-Süd-Zentrum, ETH)

Peter Bühlmann (Mathematik, ETH)

Huw Cathan Davies (Meteorologie, ETH)

Alexander von Graevenitz (Med. Mikrobiologie, Uni)

Martin Mächler (Statistik, ETH)

Hans-Ruedi Wettstein (Agrarwissenschaften, ETH)

Atsumu Ohmura (Klimatologie, ETH)

Werner Stahel (Statistik, ETH)

DOZENTENFORUM

www.dozentenforum.ch

www.campuslive.ch