A Search for Meaning

Tuesday, October 19th, 18.15 - 19.45

ETH Zürich-Center, Rämistr. 101, Main building, Hall HG F7

In 1972 Charles Duke flew on the Apollo 16 mission and spent three days exploring the surface of the moon and conducting experiments on site. He was the tenth out of twelve men to walk on the moon. In his first talk at 12.15 Charles Duke will give a first hand account of the story behind one of mankind's greatest adventures.

In the second talk at 18.15 Charles Duke and his wife Dotty will talk about their search for meaning. Their marriage, close to failure, was saved, healed, and made new when both started their search for God.

Die Vorträge sind in englischer Sprache, ohne Übersetzung.

Entrance is free.

This event has been organized by the „Dozentenforum“ and „CAMPUS live“.
